

Meal and Refreshment Commencement Times:

Breakfast	7.45 am
Morning Tea	10.30 am
Lunch	12.30 pm
Afternoon Tea	3.15 pm
Dinner	6.00 pm

The Theosophical Society in Australia PROGRAMME and INFORMATION

2019 National Convention
19-26 January, Sancta Sophia College, Sydney

Casual Meals, Morning and Afternoon Teas:

Members requiring lunch on Saturday 20 January, any other casual meals or teas, or vegan or gluten free meals, were asked to inform the National Headquarters by Friday December 14. A limited number of casual meals will be available during the event, without booking in advance.

The cost of casual meals is:

lunch - $18

dinner - $21

either morning or afternoon tea - $7.50

Please note that we cannot guarantee that the caterers can handle multiple food allergies for those who might be sensitive to a number of products.

Front cover photo:

'The Triumph of Divine Wisdom' or 'Virtue Overcoming Vice'
tapestry from the Burrell Collection

Wikimedia Commons https://www.flickr.com/photos/dun_deagh/8548209174/

Divine Wisdom
in Theory and Practice

I warmly welcome all delegates to the 2019 Convention of The Theosophical Society in Australia. Divine Wisdom, if really understood, is quite simply transformative. For millenia, the Divine Wisdom has influenced religion, art, thought and human life generally in myriad ways. The more fully it is understood, the more this Wisdom can become infused into our lives. I hope that this week together will help inspire all who are gathered here in their spiritual quest, with new and deeper insights into the theme.

Linda Oliveira
National President

“ If we regard Theosophy as an ageless Wisdom, illuminating all aspects of existence, then we can see that it is a Wisdom to be lived, with a message of eternal force and validity. ”

N. Sri Ram

ABOUT OUR FEATURED SPEAKER

Julian Droogan is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Arts at Macquarie University where he teaches in Asia-Pacific Studies, issues of Religion and Politics and International Studies. Julian is also a visiting lecturer at the Art Gallery of New South Wales. He won the John Cooper Memorial Prize, which is funded by The Theosophical Society in Australia, at the University of Sydney in 2002, and again in 2005.

